The Winston-Salem Murder.

The preliminary hearing of J. E. Witbeck, formerly of Alexandria, who was arrested at Petersburg Friday last and taken to Winston-Salem, N. C., Saturday, to answer the charge of being implicated in the murder of Henry Kobbe, a Russian Jew, January 21, was begun before Mayor Eaton at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, and at 10:20 o'clock last night a recess was taken until 10 o'clock today, when the hearing will be resumed.

Joe Tise testified to seeing two men hurrying from the vicinity of the murder just after 11 o'clock the night of the murder. The witness identified Witbeck as one of the men he saw that night.

Sallie Stewart, the young woman, who up to this time, has refused to make a statement under oath, went on the stand last night and told a story that was not shaken during a rigid cross-examination. She said she was told by Witbeck that he planned the crime, and that Sam Kobbe, half brother of Henry Kobbe, admitted to her a day or two afterwards that he and William Plain killed and robbed Henry Kobbe in his room; that a man who gave his name as "Finger" stood guard at one of the saloon doors downstairs during the perpetration of the crime. She said that the money taken from Henry Kobbe was divided between the three men and J. E. Witbeck.

City Property in the Northeast.

Previous to the adjournment of the Board of Aldermen last night Mr. George L. Simpson, member from the Third ward, submitted the following, but upon learning that the Common Council had adjourned, withdrew it:

Ordered, That the City Engineer be and he is hereby directed to survey that portion of the land owned by the City of Alexandria lying between Union street and the Potomac river and Princess and Orange streets, known as the Corporation Fish Wharf. To furnish drawings showing the location of all buildings on such wharf and their dimensions. Upon the completion of said surveys and drawings, the City Engineer is directed to furnish copies of the same to the chairman of the Committee on Public Property. And it is further ordered, That the collector of taxes and rents ascertain the owners of such tenements or houses as may be on the Corporation Fish Wharf, and what rent has been charged them by persons who have rented such space; and if any person or persons or firms use said wharf and pay wharfage for the same and what sums. The Tax collector is requested to make an immediate report to the Committee on Public Property.

The order will be introduced at the next meeting of Council.

Election This Year.

An election for members of the City Council will be held next June to fill vacancies which will occur in the two branches on the 1st of September next. In the Board of Aldermen Messrs. Hill of the First ward, Ballenger of the Second, Simpson of the Third and W. H. Sweeney of the Fourth will hold over until September 1st, 1906, while the terms of Messrs. Burke, Marbury, Curtin and J. T. Sweeney, who by lot were declared short term, or two-year members, will expire at that time. In the Common Council Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater, H. R. Burke, Henry Strauss, J. Y. Williams, T. B. Cochran, J. T. Harrison, F. C. Spinks and C. B. Marshall will hold over, their terms extending four years from September 1, 1904, while the terms of Messrs. Thomas Rishell, Hubert Snowden, Henry Baader, Louis Brill, W. H. Hellmuth, F. J. Pollard, L. E. Uhler and Albert Bryan expire two years from that date.

W. C. T. U.

The regular business meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock instead of 3. The president announced last Thursday that there would be a very short business meeting and the remainder of the afternoon spent in sewing for the children. We hope as many ladies of this city as can make it convenient will come and see from two until five o'clock at the Children's Home on Duke street.

Mr. Norris Again at Desk.

Mr. J. Ellis Norris, manager for R. G. Dun & Co., when seen by a representative of The Telegraph yesterday, was again at his desk despatching with his customary energy the routine of his office. Mr. Norris looked pale, after his recent indisposition, and merely smiled when counseled to spare himself more. He exhibited a friendly note from former U. S. Minister Squiers, in which the latter told of having been sick at Nassau, but that owing to good nursing was about again, and closing with warm regards to his friends here.—[Havana Telegraph.]

Will Probated.

The will of the late Thomas Kelly was admitted to probate today and his son, Mr. Thos. F. Kelly, qualified as executor. The estate was assessed at $6,800. The deceased left his property as follows: To his son, W. J. Kelly, he left the house and lot No. 918 Gibson street; to his son, Geo. W. Kelly, houses and lots Nos. 715 and 717 Gibson street; to his daughter, Mary T. Moore, house and lot No. 1011 Duke street; to his grand son, W. T. Moore, house and lot No. 712 Wolfe street, and to his daughter, Mary T. Moore, the remainder of his property.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late John Grady took place this afternoon from the residence on Queen street. Serepta Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased had been a member, attended the funeral. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jeffers.

Handsome Map.

Representative Rixey, through Mr. M. B. Harlow, president of the Business Men's League, has sent to that organization a very handsome and the latest map of the United States. The map can be seen at the office of Mr. Harlow.

The schooner Oyster Boy, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Colonial Beach.

Personal.

Bishop Berry, who will preside at the meeting of the Virginia Conference tomorrow, will preach in Trinity M. E. Church tonight.

Mr. J. R. Caton has returned from his legislative duties at Richmond and was today receiving the congratulations of his many friends for his work in that body.

Mrs. Susan Smoot has returned from Atlantic City, where she spent the past ten days.

Mayor Fred J. Paff, of Alexandria, was in Richmond Tuesday, and spent some time with Senator Machen in the Senate chamber. Mr. Paff is here on private business, saying that among other things he came for to be escorted Senator Machen home.—[Richmond News-Leader.] (The Mayor reached Alexandria today alone, but Senator Machen need not fear returning to his constituents; they all know it is not his fault that his street improvement amendment to the constitution did not get through the Senate.)

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bendheim left today for New York.

Mr. J. T. Boyd, who has been sick at his home on Queen street, is able to be out again.

Mr. Phil. Leterman, who has been attending the bedside of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Strauss, in this city, has returned to his home in Charlottesville.

Miss Mary M. Schofield, of this city, who is a student at the Farmville State Normal School, was a delegate to the students' convention, held in Nashville, Tenn., the first week in March.

Writ Refused.

The Court of Appeals has refused a writ of error in the case of C. H. Wells vs. the W. & A. M. V. Co. In the Circuit Court of Alexandria county recently, it will be remembered, Mr. Wells, of this city, was given damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries sustained in the collision at Hooft's run bridge last March. He was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen. By the decision Mr. Wells will receive the sum awarded him by the lower court.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

Mr. Anthony Brenner is engaged in putting in new windows and otherwise improving Mr. James Kelly's saloon on upper King street.

The weather continued rainy throughout last night, and conditions today have been unchanged. A cold northeast wind has prevailed.

Mrs. Margaret Reiley, a sister of Mrs. George H. Harlow, of this city, died this morning at her late home in Washington.

Mrs. Lucinda K. West died at her home, No. 511 Cameron street, last night. The deceased was 45 years old. She was a native of North Carolina.

Suicide of Playwright.

Louis De Lange, a well-known playwright and former actor, was found dead in his room on the third floor of Mack's Hotel, 145 west Forty-second street, New York, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, with his throat cut from the left ear to his windpipe. The man had been dead several hours. He was dressed in his underclothing, and the door was locked from the inside, the key remaining in the lock. His waistcoat was missing, with a gold watch, and his money was also gone. The police are looking for a young man who made two visits to De Lange's room with De Lange between 3:30 and 4:30 a. m., and who took a small bundle from the room after his first visit. They are also looking for a night hawk cabman who brought the two men to the hotel at 4:30 and got 50 cents from De Lange and then went away. The police think that it was a case of suicide, following intoxication. Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon, who examined the body, also thinks it a suicide case, because he says the man had strength enough after his throat was cut to walk some distance, and could easily have warned the hotel employees. De Lange's brother, who roomed directly over him in the hotel, thinks it was suicide, but also thinks he was robbed by his mysterious visitor. The man's throat was cut with his own razor.

Suicide Behind the Scenes.

Singing together as sweethearts in the same chorus at the Columbia Theatre in Washington, William Thomas and Ida Gordon parted last night forever in a tragedy behind the scenes. Thomas committed suicide because he believed he had been jilted. In his sweethearts' presence he drank carbolic acid. She knocked the glass from his hand, but not in time. It was 8:45 when young Thomas quaffed the fatal draught. The entertainment was at its height. Miss Gordon did not miss her part. With a breaking heart she sang while her adored one was dying in an ambulance on the way to the Emergency Hospital. Physicians at the hospital found that life was extinct. After the show Miss Gordon went to the hospital and looked upon the corpse. She wept. "I did not know he thought so much of me," she said. "I did not mean to break his heart. He misjudged me." Thomas was twenty-two years old and lived at Saginaw, Mich. Miss Gordon, who is 16 years old, is said to live in New York. She is a handsome blonde, and has been with the company several seasons. The young couple met on the stage when young Thomas joined the troupe on the road. An attachment sprang up, and they sang together in "Wonderland."

Today's Telegraphic News

Suicide Identified.

North Conway, N. H., March 14.—It has been ascertained that the man who killed himself by taking morphine at Old Town, Maine, on the night of March 6, was the Rev. St. Eberhart Yates, who married three wives without divorcing the first two and was deposed from the Episcopal ministry a year and a half ago by the Right Rev. Wm. Woodruff Niles, bishop of the diocese, on the charge of having induced Miss Mina Burroughs, of this town, to elope with him at the same time having a wife, Mrs. Mabel A. Yates, at Hammon, N. J. About four months ago the one time minister married a young woman of Brookton, Me. He disagreed with this last wife, and this, with his other troubles, is thought to have induced him to take his life. Yates attained widespread notoriety here two years ago, while he was rector of Christ Episcopal Church. One day he and Miss Mina Burroughs, at whose father's house the minister was boarding, ran away to Halifax, N. S., and had the marriage ceremony read over to them. Then the couple went over to England where Yates applied to a Roman Catholic bishop for a mission, but was refused. The couple lived in England for a while, and then the wife returned to her people. About the same time the first wife in New Jersey obtained a divorce. Yates followed his second wife back to this country and preached in a Congregational Church in Acrostook for a while. The third matrimonial venture was started during his career as a school teacher. He met a young woman of a respectable family, and married her, but soon discovered that he had two other wives. This, it is rumored, is the trouble that the ex-minister had with his wife which ended in his suicide. Yates was about 40 years old.

New French Cabinet.

Paris, March 14.—The first cabinet meeting of the Sarrien ministry was held this morning. The terms of the government's declaration were discussed, and it was decided that they should be read to parliament this afternoon. After concluding their deliberations, the ministers went to the Elysee Palace, where they submitted their declaration to President Fallieres for his approval. After the cabinet's declarations had been presented to President Fallieres, they were read to Parliament by Premier Sarrien, in the Chamber of Deputies. The announced policy of the government in connection with internal affairs bears principally upon the subject of the separation law which caused the downfall of the Rouvier ministry. The government announced that the law would be strictly applied resorting to all measures necessary to do this. In foreign affairs, the government announced its intention to continue the policy of the former ministry, especially in connection with Moroccan affairs. France will also remain faithful to the Russian alliance under the new government.

Interpellations regarding the general policy of the government occasioned a number of stormy incidents in the chamber, particularly over church inventories. Premier Sarrien informed the deputies that a serious event occurred in Brittany yesterday when peasants attacked a detachment of soldiers with pitchforks and stones, and wound a captain, a lieutenant, and ten men. After replies by Premier Sarrien, and M. Durand and Barthou other members of the cabinet, Premier Sarrien asked that the new ministry should be given a confidence. On the vote of confidence, demanded by Premier Sarrien, the chamber recorded itself in accord with the new government by the vote of 305 to 197.

Kaiser and Mohammedanism.

Berlin, March 14.—In the Reichstag today Herr Beibel, the socialist, in the course of debate said: "The Kaiser aspires to be regarded as the patron of the Moslem religion and the guardians of Mohammedans throughout the world. The Emperor's journeys to Constantinople, Jerusalem, and Morocco were intended to produce this impression among the Moslems. All Mohammedans believe the Kaiser bears the banner of Islam." Herr Breberger, a clerical deputy, confirming Herr Beibel's assertion, declared that Mohammedanism is the official state religion in German East Africa, where German officials openly taught the Moslem natives that the Emperor of Germany was the supreme chief of Islam.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, March 14.—In accordance with the proceedings instituted yesterday by Countess Anna de Castellane to change her suit against her husband, Count Boni, from an action for legal separation to a divorce, both Boni and the Countess have been summoned to appear before Judge Litte next Saturday. At that time, in the strictest privacy of his study, the judge will make the formal effort to reconcile the differences of the parties. There is no hope, however, that success will attend the judge's efforts. French procedure requires that this step shall be taken. Anna's suit for separation was set for hearing today, but her change of plea yesterday annuls all the former proceedings.

Rebel Leaders Beheaded.

Hong Kong, March 14.—The Chinese authorities have extradited and beheaded Kwangsi, the rebel leader, and three other men who were implicated in the attack made on the home of Dr. Andrew Beattie, the American missionary at Fati. Cable advices from China on February 8, told of an attack made on the missionary station headed by Dr. Beattie. The missionaries were bound by the robbers and their clothes, watches, and silver, valued at $1,000, were stolen.

Fight with Insurgents.

Constantinople, March 14.—The situation in the Yemen province of Arabia is reported as being very grave. Another battle has occurred between the Turkish troops and insurgents, and it is rumored that Generals Souleiman and Kiza Pasha have been killed. Troops are now pursuing the insurgents. The Turkish commander-in-chief has demanded that heavy reinforcements be sent to him.

Socialists Defiant.

Warsaw, March 14.—The socialists have created quite a stir by the issuance of the following: "We have no faith in the government of the Douma. The revolutionists must fight until their aims have been reached. A tireless fight will be renewed in the spring and the struggle must be ended and won before the glorious first of May."

Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis Ind., March 14.—There is to be no difficulty between President John Mitchell and Vice-President Lewis in ending the successful outcome of the fight of the mine workers of America who are now waging war with the mine operators. Friends of the union feared that in the heat of the present crisis former troubles between the two leading officials of the organization might break out. It can today be authoritatively stated that peace has been declared and that under no circumstances will the personal matters between the two officials figure in the coming convention. The first meeting of the miners' national executive in connection with the reconvened convention opened this morning at national headquarters. Mitchell this morning stated that the executive meeting was simply to take up questions which have come up since the regular convention adjourned, and was not for the purpose of mapping out a course for the convention to pursue. Mitchell was asked what would be done with the Ryan resolution passed in the regular convention, which provides that no agreements shall be signed unless all the districts under control of the national miners' organization are included in their contract. "I cannot tell any more about that than you can," said Mitchell. The complexity might be affected by the number of proxies given by the smaller unions, not financially able to send special delegates again to Indianapolis, was discounted by Mitchell.

Bomb-throwing.

New York, March 14.—A man supposed to be a striking teamster threw a bomb this morning at the front of the six story double building of Clark, Chapin & Bunnell, importers and tea jobbers, at Nos. 177-179 Duane street. The explosion shattered several large glass windows in the front of the store and caused the overturning of canned goods and a loss of about $1,200. The teamsters formerly employed by the firm have been on strike since December 8, and since that time the members of the company have been subjected to various forms of annoyances. During the last few weeks a number of non-union men, who took the places of the strikers, have been badly beaten.

Withdrew Warrant for Execution.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 14.—Governor Pennypacker this morning withdrew the warrant for the execution of George H. Hossey, the voodoo doctor, who was to have been hanged in Philadelphia on March 27. Hossey's counsel has notified the Governor that they intend to apply to the Board of Pardons for commutation of the death sentence.

Sale of Railway Stock in Canton.

Canton, China, March 14.—The stock of the Hankow-Canton railroad was offered for sale for prospective investors in this city today. The rush of applicants was so great that the streets in the neighborhood of the offices where subscriptions were received became blocked and it was necessary to call out soldiers to manage the crowds.

Mysterious Fire.

Fishers Island, N. Y., March 14.—It is believed at Fort Wright that the fire seen off here late last night, and believed by some to be a vessel afire, was on the Long Island main land. It was nearly opposite this point and too far away to be clearly distinguished.

Billiard Match.

Saratoga, N. Y., March 14.—George Slosson, of New York, who is practicing here for his championship billiard match with Willie E. Hoppe, defeated Charles Klein, of Philadelphia, last night by a score of 500 to 450. Slosson played 18.1 and Klein 18.2.

Voting in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—The elections for the National Douma are proceeding slowly. The people generally are overawed and are afraid to vote. Many liberals who were elected have already been arrested and sent to Siberia.

Five Thousand Miners Strike.

Paris, March 14.—Following the great mine disaster at Courrières on Saturday, 5,000 miners in the Courrières neighborhood have declared a strike. Other miners threaten to join the strike movement.

Austrian Ambassador Attacked.

Buda-Pesth, Hungary, Mar. 14.—The Hungarian press is making an angry attack upon Dr. L. Hengelmayer de Hengelmayer, the Austrian ambassador in Hungary, the United States, charging him with instigating the American press against the policy of the Hungarian coalition party.

Mother and Son Asphyxiated.

New York, March 14.—Mrs. Rose Hylop, aged 23, and her son, Joseph, of No. 190 India street, Green Point, were found dead in their beds today, having been overcome by gas. It is believed that their deaths were due to an accident. Both own a number of houses in the vicinity of their home.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 14.—The stock market held generally firm during the first hour with strong spots similar to those of yesterday. A large part of the selling came from Chicago.

Tortured to Death.

Five Koreans on the island of Hawaii have been accused of a murder of unusual atrocity. Their alleged victim was a fellow-countryman suspected of stealing $56. They are said to have seized him in a cane field and then held an inquisition. It is charged that he was beaten and cut, and when he fainted, his captors revived him with wine, in which they poured themselves, resuming the tortures when he was strong enough. To add to his sufferings said it was to have been placed in his open wounds. He died when a fire was kindled under a portion of his body. Besides the five men indicted, four others are in custody in connection with the affair.
